

LESSON PROPOSAL FORM

TAH GRANT YEAR ONE

Please Select Topics Generally Related to the Following Areas of American History:

1. The Roots of America X
2. The First Globalization
3. North American Colonies
4. The Birth of Liberty

All lesson templates, information on the Binary Paideia, methods and many other resources are on the CICERO website to assist you in the research, development and application of your lesson. You will find the Lesson Templates, Lesson Proposal and Lesson Reflection forms on your district website under TESTOT.

Name: Robb Eppolite & Elena Sima

Grade Level: World History - 11th Grade

General Description of Research Area and Content Focus of Lesson

Lesson Title/Content Focus:

Exploring new political ideas: Thomas Hobbes & John Locke; Thomas Jefferson & William Penn

Objectives:

- Students will be introduced to the 1700s also known as the Age of Enlightenment.
- Students will learn about Thomas Hobbes & John Locke ideas about government and natural law.
- Students will make connections between European thinkers and Americans desire/fight for independence.

Assessment:

Exploring Political Ideas PPT

Compare and Contrast Hobbes and Locke - Graphic Organizer

Independent work - Quiz